

Santa Anita Stormwater Flood Management and Seismic Strengthening Project

Cost and Benefits Summary

Proposal Project Costs and Benefits Summaries

The Proposal for the Greater Los Angeles County Region offers a high level of benefit for the State relative to lifetime costs. The Project has an overall benefit to cost ratio of 4.23, showing that the benefits of this project outweigh the cost.

Table 10.1 - Proposal Project Costs and Benefits Summary Project: Santa Anita Stormwater Flood Management and Seismic Strengthening Project
Project	Agency	Total Present Value Project Cost	Total Present Value Project Benefits				Benefit/Cost Ratio
			Water Supply	Flood Damage Reduction	Water Quality & Other	Total
(a)	(b)	(c)	(d)	(e)	(f)	(g) (d)+(e)+(f)	(h) (g)/(c)
Santa Anita Stormwater Flood Management and Seismic Strengthening Project	Los Angeles County Flood Control District	$33,350,000	$23,168,411	$117,992,441	$0	$141,160,852	4.23